Dear Mr. Garrison

Not knowing

Mr. Johnson's address

May I ask the favour of you to direct & post the enclosed letter, which you are entirely welcome to read

and if it can be possible that you are not
moved to run away
at the sight of a manuscript.

Pray give my Cordial regards to all your family, whom I wish much to see.
I met Fanny & her husband for a moment

on

in New York; I hoped to have seen them
again, but was summoned to Mass^{ts} by telegraph next day or two.

We have lost our ^{Henrietta}
dear friend H. Sargent & ^{Mrs. James M.} M. Robbins from sight but not from remembrance since I saw you last.

The latter was my oldest ^{party in life} Boston friend - made ^{be-} fore

before you had awakened us to a cause for living.

With cordial regards
to all your family,
I am always

Yours greatly obliged & attached friend.
